Reflection

Alleluia, He is Risen!

The tragic events of Good Friday brought darkness, confusion and disappointment to the disciples of Christ. The gospel tells us "Mary Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning while it was still dark." Perhaps she was afraid or maybe just not sure what to expect. But in the midst of all that was the good news that she "saw the stone removed from the tomb."

The stone had been the seal of hopelessness. Jesus was truly dead and buried. However, the joy of the Easter morning reveals that even the grave cannot hold Him. God brings back hope and life even in situations we may consider hopeless. Jesus is truly risen and in His rising, we too have victory over the things that may try to hold us captive. That is why we rejoice, because with Jesus, there is a breakthrough. With Jesus, we are set free from the burdens of life!
