Reflection

"I turn to you Lord in time of trouble and you fill me with joy of salvation"

Life in the world can present some twists and turns. For every human person, regardless of their status and successes in life, there are moments of struggles, challenges and maybe some troubles. Where and who do you turn at such moments? The Psalmist is very confident that in turning to God, there is a sure path to happiness, liberation and freedom. It is such firm trust that sustains in moments of trials and difficulties. God wills that you experience joy in the world. God makes this possible through the many miracles He works in our lives and in our world. God makes this possible by the grace He bestows us to pull through life's troubles.

In the gospel today, Jesus speaks those same words of healing to you saying "I do will it, be made clean" I do will it, be made strong. I do will it, be consoled. I do will it, be forgiven. I do will it, be loved. I do will it, be liberated. I do will it, be blessed. Like the Psalmist, trust in His loving care and God will certainly not let you down.
