Reflection

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity that we celebrate today is central to the Christian life. We bless ourselves in the Trinitarian formula. The priest blesses us in the name of the Trinity. All our prayers in the church begins in the Name of the Holy Trinity and ends glorifying the Trinity. All Sacraments in the church are administered in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. The Trinity pervades our worship and faith life. Sometimes we try to figure out the inner workings of the Trinity but truth is, our God is far beyond any human comprehension. Yet, we are convinced by Faith that God lives in the Trinitarian person because Jesus has revealed to us the Person of the Trinity. The conviction of the Trinitarian presence within us should help us esteem ourselves as God's dwelling place. The presence of the Triune God should encourage us to respect and honor others as "Temples of the Holy Spirit." It should order our steps in the path of holiness of life. It should motivate us to carry out charitable works and seek justice. God is there living within your own soul. Seek God, love God and adore the divine presence of the Trinity.
