Reflection

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two

In the gospel today, Jesus summons the twelve and sends them out on a mission; to further God's works of presence, healing, peace, love and blessings. They were not just to be his disciples following him around but they were sent to go out and make a difference in the lives of others within the community. Jesus knows too well that the disciples could be easily distracted by the lure of material things, so he instructs them to leave material things behind and focus on God's providence.

We are the disciples of Jesus today. Jesus sends us out as well to make a difference in our families, our communities and wherever we find ourselves. A spirit of detachment is needed to succeed in the mission of evangelization. Sometimes we get easily distracted maybe by phone, TV, Internet that we lose those golden opportunities to connect with each other, to be present and listen. Jesus sends us out to preach the word with our words and deeds, to attend to our brothers and sisters, to pay attention to their needs, their joys and struggles. One thing is certain, God will always provide for our needs.
