Reflection

The first reading starts by saying that the "whole Israelite grumbled against Moses and Aaron." Their grumbling is caused by the stress of their journey through the desert. They were hungry thirsty and worn out. But they forgot the blessings and miracles God has been working for them through Moses and Aaron. They forgot the liberation from slavery that God has granted them. They forgot the freedom. They became so overwhelmed by the difficulties that they focus so much on complains rather than be thankful.

In our journey of life, it is very easy as well to be consumed by the difficulties of life and forget God's blessings. Our journey in the world can bring the hardships of emptiness, sickness, loneliness and grief such that they blind us from thanking God for the daily gifts and favors that come our way. One thing is sure, God continues to feed us daily with the bread of strength and grace. God journeys with us to supply the needs. Jesus is the bread of life. Turn to Jesus and pray each day for the grace to walk through the desert of life. Above all, do not be consumed by the distress of life but thank God as well for His grace is always enough.
